ABSTRACT

In 2009, the euro celebrated its first decade. As of January 2009, it was circulating in 16 member states of the European Union (EU).<sup>3</sup> This unparalleled experiment in monetary unification is a milestone in European integration.<sup>4</sup> The euro has emerged as a major currency, even challenging the U.S. dollar as the

3. In 2002, 12 of the 15 EU member states introduced euro notes and coins. The exceptions were Denmark, Sweden and the United Kingdom. As of 2009 the EU has 27 member states. Slovenia adopted the euro in January 2007, Malta and Cyprus in January 2008, and Slovakia in January 2009. Several other member states wish to adopt the euro as soon as EU criteria permit. The euro is also the official currency of some countries that are not EU members: microstates such as Monaco that formerly used currencies replaced by the euro, and Montenegro and Kosovo.
